"Great Minds Don't Think Alike" -- SAGE Review

Date: Saturday, December 10, 2005
Time: 10:00 am – noon
Location: Sun Room, Alberta School for the Deaf, 6240 - 113 Street, Edmonton

The theme of the 16th annual SAGE conference this year is "Gifted and Talented Education: Great Minds Don't Think Alike!" It will be held November 25 and 26 at Grant MacEwan College. If you missed the conference or have an interest in the sessions you were unable to attend, please join AABC and EABC executive members who presented at the conference, and other parents and educators who attended the conference, for a review of valuable information. If you attended the conference, please share what you brought away from the event. We look forward to seeing you.

The Society for the Advancement of Gifted Education (SAGE) is an umbrella organization of primary stakeholders in gifted education in Alberta including the Alberta Associations for Bright Children (AABC), Gifted and Talented Education Council of the Alberta Teachers' Association (GTEC), and The Centre for Gifted Education at the University of Calgary.

The Edmonton Association for Bright Children (EABC) is the Edmonton chapter of the Alberta Associations for Bright Children (AABC). EABC is a volunteer organization of families that provides activities, resources and support for bright children and their families. Membership is open to all.
