Resource Sharing and SAGE Review

Date: Saturday, December 4, 2004
Time: 10:00 am – noon
Location: Sun Room
Alberta School for the Deaf, 6240 - 113 Street
Edmonton

This is an informal session of resource sharing. Members and interested parents and professionals are invited to bring favourite resources and share with others.

Anyone who attended the SAGE conference is invited to come and share information they gained from presentations. This year's annual SAGE conference will be held at the University of Calgary on November 19 and 20. SAGE is a provincial group for organizing an annual conference on the education of gifted students for educators, researchers and parents.

David Laughton, president of the EABC, will moderate this session. David has worked as a volunteer in gifted education for 10 years.

The Edmonton Association for Bright Children (EABC) is the Edmonton chapter of the Alberta Associations for Bright Children (AABC). EABC is a volunteer organization of families that provides activities, resources and support for bright children and their families. Membership is open to all.
